ONE OF THE 12 COOLEST NEIGHBORHOODS IN THE WORLD

Recently named one of the 12 coolest neighborhoods in the WORLD by Forbes, culture thrives in Pilsen.

Bold murals line the walls of the CTA 18th Street Pink Line 'L' station and the viaducts along 16th Street, on the fronts of homes, along railway overpasses, and wrapped around train platforms. The artful vibe continues within storefront galleries and studios, as well as in the colorful collections of the National Museum of Mexican Art, a highly-regarded cultural institution.

Blended and full of diversity, Pilsen features offbeat vintage shops, galleries, and independent coffee houses alongside world-class restaurants serving everything from authentic Mexican cuisine to high-end restaurants run by award-winning chefs.

PLATES, PAINTINGS, & PALETAS

(TOP LEFT)

LEVE alum Chef Stephen Gillanders's first solo venture named after his wife, Seon Kyung Yuk (S.K.Y). The restaurant serves soulful Asian-inspired small plates and affordable craft cocktails in an airy, industrial-chic space. S.K.Y. was listed as one of Chicago's 50 Best Restaurants by Chicago Magazine and Phil Vettel for the Chicago Tribune.

PILSEN'S DINING & ENTERTAINMENT MECCA

Pilsen has long been home to exceptional restaurants and bars, but thanks to a new wave of restaurants along 18th Street, Pilsen is morphing into one of the most dynamic areas in the city for food, drink and entertainment.

Standout newcomers include HaiSous, recipient of Michelin's 2018-2019 Bib Gourmand + James Beard Foundation 2018 Semifinalist for "Best New Restaurant"; critically acclaimed S.K.Y.; Tack Room, a hip piano bar; and Furious Spoon's Pilsen outpost.
