ONE OF THE 12 COOLEST NEIGHBORHOODS IN THE WORLD

Recently named one of the 12 coolest neighborhoods in the WORLD by Forbes, culture thrives in Pilsen.

Bold murals line the walls of the CTA 18th Street Pink Line 'L' station and the viaducts along 16th Street, on the fronts of homes, along railway overpasses, and wrapped around train platforms. The artful vibe continues within storefront galleries and studios, as well as in the colorful collections of the National Museum of Mexican Art, a highly-regarded cultural institution.

Blended and full of diversity, Pilsen features offbeat vintage shops, galleries, and independent coffee houses alongside world-class restaurants serving everything from authentic Mexican cuisine to high-end restaurants run by award-winning chefs.

PILSEN'S HOT SPOT FOR DINING & ENTERTAINMENT

Pilsen has long been home to exceptional restaurants and bars, and the 18th Street corridor continues to thrive as one of the city's most dynamic destinations for food, drink, and entertainment. Standouts include Hai Sous, recipient of Michelin's Bib Gourmand and a James Beard Foundation semifinalist for "Best New Restaurant," and Mariscos San Pedro, a new seafood concept now open inside Thalia Hall from the team behind Taqueria Chingón. Neighborhood favorites like Tack Room, an intimate piano bar, and 5 Rabanitos keep the local flavor strong, adding even more depth to this vibrant culinary scene.
