Chicago's Gold Coast

101. W. Division Street lies within one of Chicago's most coveted areas, the Gold Coast. Located just north of Downtown Chicago and nestled against Lake Michigan, the Gold Coast is considered one of Chicago's most beautiful and affluent areas. Abundant shopping, historic landmark homes, dramatic views of Lake Michigan, Navy Pier, and close proximity to the Loop draws locals and visitors to this notable retail district. Numerous amenities, incredible location, and first rate education options such as Loyola and The Frances Xavier Warde School, make the Gold Coast a residential stronghold with thousands of existing luxury condominiums. New developments are rising to meet demand for even more housing in the area including The Sinclair, located directly across the street from 101 W. Division, and the three tower multi-phase Atrium Village, located in neighboring Old Town.

An extremely popular destination for shoppers, the Gold Coast is home to internationally recognized stores, upscale boutiques, and designer fashions including Hermès, Marc Jacobs, Saint Laurent and Tom Ford. Flagship Barneys New York, the Park Hyatt Hotel, Thompson Hotel, Viceroy, The Sofitel Hotel, The Four Seasons Hotel and The Waldorf Astoria (formerly Elysian Hotel) anchoring the area, a mix of young urban brands and designer boutiques are increasingly competing for positions along Division Street.

An abundance of nightlife keeps the Gold Coast lively after retail hours. Offerings range from classic Chicago steakhouses and award winning fine dining restaurants, including the Michelin-starred Spiaggia and James Beard award winner Nico Osteria, to sophisticated cocktail bars and vibrant upscale nightclubs featuring world-class entertainment.
